Mayor's Report

Last month I wrote about how our community depends on volunteerism to make everything work and highlighted the service of Cindy Johnson. This month I would like to focus on some other community members willing to make a difference. Several years ago Jeff Chesley volunteered his talents as a painter and restored the painted surfaces in the theatre. His efforts helped to bring this old building back to life and along with other improvements to the seating and sound system make the Lewiston Theatre a wonderful and unique part of our community.

Jeff is now volunteering his talents to paint the ballroom and to help bring it back to life. This will help to keep this facility in good repair and available for members of the community to use for civic and family events.

A couple of weeks ago I was able to attend the awards banquet for the Fire and EMS department. Chief Gerald Smith was recognized for forty years of service to the department. In addition Mark Blair was recognized for thirty years of service and Alan Smith for twenty five years of service.

These are but a few members of our community willing to sacrifice for the good of us all. Take a minute to recognize the members of our community that are willing to serve each of us.
